

Sock Out Cancer™

Symbolizing the Fight Against Cancer in All Its Forms

Because there are more than 20 different colors and patterns representing the various forms of cancer, Sock Out Cancer's multi-hued socks were designed to symbolize the fight against all cancers. By purchasing and wearing these socks, we can display our solidarity with friends and family members fighting cancer, as well as aid financially distressed families fighting cancer so they can put all their energy into winning their battle.
